What is Outpatient Rehabilitation?

Our skilled therapists help you build strength and flexibility after an illness, injury, or surgery or if you are experiencing pain that limits your daily activities. Outpatient rehabilitation can also be valuable if you are working on a specific health issue or need to improve your general strength, health, and overall well-being. If you or someone you know has mobility or speech issues associated with Parkinson's disease or other neurological conditions, we offer specialized LSVT therapies for patients with these unique needs.
