Come Visit The Pasciuti Pavilion at The Osborn

The Osborn is located in scenic Rye, NY. The 56-acre campus features manicured lawns and beautiful perennial gardens. It is the perfect environment for recuperation and healing.

The Pavilion is less than 30 miles from New York City and easily accessible from I-95 or the Hutchinson River Parkway. The campus offers free parking.

For those using mass transit, the Rye Metro North Railroad station (New Haven Line) is less than 2 miles from the Osborn.

The Betty Neagle Perennial Garden is located just outside The Pavilion Dining Room.

The Pavilion offers a wide range of services to area seniors and Osborn residents, including:

- Short-term Rehabilitation—Inpatient occupational, physical, and speech therapists foster independence by assisting residents to recover as quickly and completely as possible from events such as joint replacement surgery, injury, stroke, or illness.
- Long-term Nursing Care—Registered Nurses and other licensed nursing personnel provide comprehensive long-term skilled care and round-the-clock monitoring.
- Respite Care—A temporary stay at The Pavilion offers care and support while a caregiver attends to other responsibilities or enjoys some time away. Services are customized to specific needs and preferences, so residents feel comfortably at home during their stay.
- Hospice—The Osborn's interdisciplinary team works together to ensure the comfort of residents and family members in a home-like setting, as well as responsive, supportive care.
- Outpatient Rehabilitation—Physical, occupational, and speech therapy are also available following discharge on an outpatient basis. Members of the community can also utilize these services.

The Pavilion includes a medical suite with specialty examination rooms, such as ophthalmology, podiatry, and dentistry. In addition, the rehabilitation clinic is equipped and professionally staffed for speech, occupational, and physical therapies.

The Highest Quality of Life

The Pavilion features 84 private rooms on two floors, uniquely clustered in groups of seven or eight. This design approach helps to create a warm sense of neighborhood for residents and their guests. Family and friends are welcome to visit 24 hours a day.

Our Dining Services Staff offers nutritious, restaurant-style menu selections in an elegant dining room overlooking The Betty Neagle Perennial Garden.

The Pavilion also offers a number of programs and amenities to maximize each resident's quality of life through recreational activities and social interaction. These include:

- Activity centers
- Parlors
- Libraries
- Hair salon
- Religious services
- Free cable TV
- Laundry services
- Sun rooms
- WellSpring Cafe
